Presenter: David Adams, Ed.D., Co-founder and Co-Director of EMERGE

Established in 1977, EMERGE was the first counseling program in the nation for men who abuse women. For 40 years David has led groups for men who batter and conducted outreach to victims of abuse. He has led parenting education classes for fathers for 16 years. He is one of the nation's leading experts on men who batter and has conducted trainings for social service and criminal justice professionals in 45 states and 16 nations. He has published numerous articles and book chapters, and writes a featured blog on The Huffington Post. David is a Commissioner on the Massachusetts Governor's Council on Sexual and Domestic Violence and Director of the National Domestic Violence Risk Assessment and Management Training Project. His book, "Why Do They Kill? Men Who Murder Their Intimate Partners," was published by Vanderbilt University Press in 2007.
