

FREE SOCIAL SKILLS AND PARENT SUPPORT GROUPS FOR CHILDREN ON THE SPECTRUM AND WITH OTHER DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

- Does your child face challenges making friends due to autism or another developmental disability?
- Have you noticed your child having trouble interacting with friends, fellow students, or other adults?
- Would you like to meet with other parents who are dealing with similar issues that you are coping with?

On-going weekly, evening classes follow social distancing guidelines and begin on Thursday, October 8, 2020

FSL is accepting applications for families to register for FREE fun-filled, educational, eight-session social skills groups. These weekly, hour-long groups, as well as the concurrent parent support meeting, are facilitated by experienced teachers and social workers.

Family Service League
William Floyd Family Center
338 Blanco Road, Mastic Beach
(next to William Paca Middle School)

For information or intake appointment, please contact Brianna Palisi
631-998-0016
brianna.palisi@fsl-li.org

Pre-registration is required - Thank you!

This program is funded by a grant from the NYS Office of People with Developmental Disabilities

Family Service League, founded in 1926, is a Long Island non-profit human service organization providing a safety net for people in need. Touching the lives of 50,000 people annually, addressing some of the most prevalent and pressing human needs challenges facing our communities, FSL delivers tangible help and crisis intervention across a spectrum of service areas including mental illness, drug and alcohol abuse, homelessness, early education, job training, computer literacy, trauma counseling, at-risk youth, family counseling and senior support services. In all, FSL offers over 60 programs at 22 locations throughout Long Island.

