The 2020 Census is more than a population count. It's an opportunity to shape your community's future. The Census data guides how more than $675 billion of federal funding is distributed to states and communities each year. So many of the things we depend on are based on these statistics. Things like school lunch programs, plans for highways, support for firefighters, services for families in need, housing assistance for older adults, and so much more. Your Census response affects Suffolk County's federal funding for the next 10 years!

Your answers are confidential and private. Census does not ask whether you or anyone in your home is a U.S. citizen. By law, the Census Bureau is required to protect your information. It is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify you or members of your household. The Census may be completed online, by phone, or by mail.
