NEWS TO SHARE...

Spring is in the air and our Universal Pre-Kindergarten classes received an exciting delivery of caterpillars from the farm!

The children will be watching them transform into butterflies while they read, learn, and create art projects to celebrate. To kick off the festivities, our young students paraded through the school to show off the colorful butterfly wings they made with their friends and teachers.

FSL will be hosting a very special Virtual Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on facebook live Friday, May 14th at 10:00am. FSL has expanded its capacity to offer integrated health care at the new Fay J. Lindner Health & Wellness Center on the Judith & Thomas Iovino Campus located in Bay Shore. This new facility includes a team of FSL's psychiatrists, psychologists, and social workers, as well as South Shore University Hospital Northwell Health medical personnel as part of the Community Health Care Collaborative.

Our thanks to LifeVac for the generous donation of 24 life-saving devices. These kits will be at each FSL location and can be used in the case of an child or adult choking emergency. To date, over 125 people have been saved. Learn more at lifevac.net and receive a discount of $10.00 on your order when using the code FSL.

Thank You to Our Nonprofit Heroes!

These heroes were nominated by their peers for their tremendous work in helping Long Islanders in need since the beginning of the pandemic.

FSL's President & CEO, Karen Boorshtein, was nominated as a non-profit hero!
