

Spring is here and exciting career opportunities are waiting for YOU!

Find a Rewarding Career on our Team

We have excellent opportunities for social workers, program directors, case managers, team coordinators, parent liaisons, advocates, outreach workers, pre-school teachers, psychiatrists, nurse practitioners, recreation therapy aides, and many other fulfilling career opportunities.

Join a recognized national TOP WORKPLACE employer. With 60+ programs in locations throughout Long Island, there is something for anyone seeking a rewarding new occupation. Full-time and part-time positions available. FSL is an equal opportunity employer.

Click to apply today!

Current positions include - click to view all.

Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

- Responsible for developing and implementing all agency initiatives, policies, and procedures involving diversity and equity.

Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner

- Provides psychiatric assessments and medication management for children and adults experiencing a behavioral health crisis

Social Worker - Provides individual, family, and group therapy for adolescents within an educational setting, connected to an outpatient mental health clinic.

Youth Development Specialist - Responsible for leading educational, recreational, and enrichment programs for children and family members residing in emergency housing.

Licensed Nurse Practitioner - The Assertive Community Treatment Program provides mobile community based mental health treatment to promote the recovery and community integration of individuals with serious mental illness.

