

CELEBRATING VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION MONTH

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month, an opportunity to recognize and thank those whose efforts have a lasting impact on the lives of others. FSL's dedicated volunteers are valued friends.

Their desire to give back is a unique gift that brightens the lives of those around them.

Their energy and selflessness strengthen our community.

We are grateful to our FSL volunteers!

WE WELCOME JODI BAKER TO FSL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Jodi Baker is the Vice President of Marketing and Revenue Management for Heatherwood. In 2004, Ms. Baker began her career as a member of Heatherwood's Residential and Account Management team. She expanded her experience through work as Director of NYC Leasing and Director of Revenue Management before assuming her current role. She attended Clemson University's Bachelor of Arts program for English as well as Clemson's Graduate program in Professional Communication.

Ms. Baker is a long-time supporter of FSL and will be an asset to our organization!

FSL's Board of Directors are a distinguished group of corporate and community leaders who volunteer their time and talents to help further our mission of helping Long Island's most vulnerable children, teens, and adults.
